war guilt and world politics after world war ii The causes of World War I remain controversial. World War I began in the Balkans in late July 1914 and ended in November 1918, leaving 17 million dead and 20 million wounded.. Scholars looking at the long-term seek to explain why two rival sets of powers " Germany and Austria-Hungary on the one hand, and Russia, France, and Great Britain on the other " had come into conflict by 1914.
